

New Delhi: Shanghai Cooperation Organization (SCO) Countries Commodity Fair was organized by China Chamber of Commerce for Import and Export of Machinery and Electronic Products in Shanxi Provincial Convention and Exhibition Center at Xi'an, Shaanxi Province during 24th-26th September 2015.

Trade Promotion Council of India organized the TPCI India Pavilion at the fair with a participation of 15 Indian companies with support of Ministry of Commerce & Industries, Government of India and The Embassy of India, China.

The Show was inaugurated by Mr. Fang Aiqing, Vice Minister of Ministry of Commerce of The People's Republic of China. Delegates from the Russian Federation and Embassy of The Republic of Belarus also visited and appreciated the show.

The show had participation from countries like The People's Republic of China, Republic of Kazakhstan, Kyrgyz Republic, Russian Federation, Republic of Tajikistan, Republic of Uzbekistan, India, Iran, Mongolia, Pakistan, Afghanistan, Sri Lanka, Belarus, Turkey and Turkmenistan.

The exhibition was a well set platform for display of products, special industries and projects of all these countries and utilize opportunity in segments of trade, investment, energy, transport, agriculture, technology as well as enhance regional economic cooperation.

The fair was organized to consolidate and strengthen regional economic cooperation of the Shanghai Cooperation Organization in order to expand the Silk Road cooperation, and promote common development.

THE SHANGHAI COOPERATION ORGANIZATION COUNTRIES
COMMODITY FAIR

Supported by:

Ministry of Commerce & Industry
Government of India
&
Embassy of India, China